NYACK DINNER MEETING – September 9, 2010

5:30 Registration – 6:00 Dinner

Long Island/Metro ABC Proudly Presents; Jim Schug, Consultant – FMI Corporation

Many organizations are faced with doing more with less and competing in new areas of attempting different project types. As a result of these market and strategic pressures, many contractors are focusing on developing project management best practices.

During the session, we will cover:

- What best-in-class contractors are doing to ensure operational excellence in this tough market
- What high-performing organizations are doing and how to benchmark your practices to better cope with today's challenges and emerge profitably as the market recovers
- The roadblocks contractors fact to become excellent

We are fortunate to have a presenter of Jim's ability. "Don't Miss This One!"

COST: $50.00 per person – non-member $60.00 per person
